Notes: There were no threats of litigation from students. All students enrolled were supported through the completion of their program at SCU.

Student Arrangements: The institution maintained all courses until students completed their programs in full compliance with the standard teach out requirements from the Higher Learning Commission. Some students chose to move to online courses to finish their last semesters. SCU did not have plans to deactivate this location at the time of student admission. Therefore, our plans were for students to complete their program. Once the decision was made to deactivate the campus, no new students were admitted and all existing students were supported through the completion of their program at SCU.
